Rookies Wrap it up

Well, the snow played havoc on scheduling and caused the postponement of the Rookie Rumble and match v South Brunswick as well as cancellation of practices. We were able to combine the B Bash with a rescheduled Rookie Rumble this past Saturday to get our C kids some mat time to end their seasons. Luke Tharney, Timothy Yarnall, Tallen Smith, Matt Minikel, Isa Fairoz, Danyal Fairoz, Jay Grover and Madden Obado left the comfy confines of the C room to take on opponents from other programs in a Rookie Rumble and all said they had a great time and were glad to end their season at the Rumble. Coaches Brad and Greg said the young guns came out nervous and a little apprehensive but once they hit the mats they remembered what they were taught and worked their moves. The C kids wrapped up their season and will be well prepared for next year, building on the moves they learned this season.

Unfortunately all the snowouts cancelled the cheerleaders display at the home matches that were impacted. The girls will be cheering next week at the home match with Kenilworth.

The 'A' Team continued to dominate in the Central Jersey League and with their victory over Bridgewater, they clinched the Central Jersey League. Taking to the road for two Mid Jersey League matches, the 'A' team defeated Woodbridge and Monroe to get a step closer to the title in the Mid Jersey League. Our Central Jersey Team will strive for individual titles this Sunday at the Central Jersey League Championship Tourney at New Providence.

Coach Este and Jay's 'B' Team also continued their successful season by taking on all comers in Trenton, Woodbridge, Monroe and the B Bash and coming away with more wins than losses. The 'B' Team will test their meddle this Sunday with their League Championship Tournament at Piscataway.

The Senior Team traveled to North Hunterdon for the 'Final Exam', the NJGSWL Championship Tournament. In this ultra-tough league our wrestlers fought well and the following placed—Jon Shleyfer—1st Place, Ryan Fahy—5th Place, Jason Minikel—7th Place and Max Pavlis—7th Place. Also wrestling was Al Gleason, Tyler Gallegos, Paul Picharello, Patrick Rafferty, Sean Glasgow, Ricky Melvin and Mark Petscavage. Coach Keith's team has one more match v Sayreville as they prepare for the Mid Jersey Senior Division Tournament next weekend.
